

July 7, 1942.

Mr. A. E. Sixsmith,
1207 Walnut St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Please pardon my delay in answering your letter of June 17th. We were investigating to see if we could find who that carton of miscellaneous clothing belonged to before answering your letter, but before we got an answer to you, you shipped the carton to us.

You are hereby advised that this package does not belong to us, therefore, we will await your instructions what to do with same.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ